Thirty-fourth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-fourth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and authority received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1863, as set forth in General Orders No. 4, dated Adjutant General's Office, Trenton, N. J., July 11, 1863. The organization was to be effected under the requirements of existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, and of General Orders No. 191 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No. 110 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. The organization of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and the authority to raise Companies was issued to individuals in different parts of the State. The Headquarters of the Regiment was established at Beverly, N. J., and so remained until the 3d of October, 1863, when under instructions from the Adjutant General's Office, Trenton, dated September 30, 1863, the command was transferred to Camp Parker, near Trenton, at which place it remained until fully completed. As soon as the Companies were raised they reported at Camp and were immediately mustered into the service of the United States for three years, or during the war. Company A was mustered in September 3; Company C, September 21, and Company G, September 23, 1863, at Beverly, N. J., by Wm. Hudson Lawrence, Captain Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army; Company B, October 15; Company D, October 6; Company E, October 26; Company F, October 8; Company H, October 6; Company I, October 20; Company K, and Field and Staff, November 9, 1863, at Camp Parker, near Trenton, N. J., by Samuel Canby, First Lieutenant Fourth Artillery, United States Army. Under the same authority by which this Regiment was organized, the Thirty-seventh Regiment Infantry was commenced, but failed. The enlisted men for that Regiment were assigned to and joined this Regiment. The Regiment was fully organized and completed by the 9th day of November, 1863, having a full complement of men. Officers, 35; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 830. Total, 865. It left the State November 16, 1863, and under orders from the War Department proceeded to Eastport, Miss., having been assigned for duty in the West. It then became a part of the Army of the Cumberland, and at once entered upon an active and varied career. It was then assigned to the Sixteenth Army Corps. At different times during the years 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of Recruits. The Regiment remained in this vicinity until February, 1865, when, in connection with other troops, proceeded to New Orleans, to join an expedition against Mobile, Ala. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service for one year after the close of the War, having been retained in this Department by order of the Government, and was employed at Provost and other duties. The enlisted men entitled to discharge under the provisions of General Orders No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, were mustered out June 6, 1865, at Montgomery, Ala., under the provisions of General Orders No. 64, dated Headquarters Military Division West Mississippi, New Orleans, La., May 31, 1865. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Selma, Ala., April 30th, 1866, by Eli H. Hosmer, First Lieutenant Eighty-first Regiment United States Colored Infantry, Assistant Commissary of Musters, in obedience to General Orders No. 21, Department of Alabama, April 9, 1866. It then returned to New Jersey, arriving at Trenton in due time, and was soon after disbanded, being the last Regiment from the State to quit the service of the United States upon the conclusion of the War.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the Cumberland; then to the First Brigade, First Division, Sixteenth Army Corps; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, Sixteenth Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Columbus, Ky., April 13, '64; Hickman, Ky., June 10, '64; Clinton, Ky., July 10, '64; Mayfield, Ky., Sept. 1, '64; Paris Landing, Ky., Oct. 31, '64; Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 27, '64; Fort Hugar, Mobile, Ala., April 2, '65; Spanish Fort, Mobile, Ala., April 3 and 4, '65; Fort Blakeley, Mobile, Ala., April 5 to 9, '65.

Thirty-fifth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-fifth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and authority received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1863, as set forth in General Orders No. 4, dated Adjutant General's Office, Trenton, N. J., July 11, 1863. The organization was to be effected under the requirements of existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, and of General Orders No. 191 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No 110 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. The organization of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and the authority to raise Companies was issued to individuals in different parts of the State. The Headquarters of the Regiment was established at Flemington, N. J., and active measures were put forth to complete the organization at an early day, which was successful. The required number of men was raised and mustered into the service of the United States, by Companies, for three years, by the 13th of October, 1863. Company A was mustered in August 28; Company B, September 25; Company C, September 15; Company D, October 13; Companies E and F, September 18; Company G, September 25; Company I, September 18; Company K, September 15, and Field and Staff, October 14, 1863, at Flemington, N. J.; Company H was mustered in September 24, 1863, at Freehold, N. J., by Wm. Hudson Lawrence, Captain Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army. Under the same authority by which this Regiment was organized, the Thirty-sixth Regiment (Infantry) was commenced, but failed. The officers and enlisted men for that Regiment was assigned to and joined this Regiment. The Regiment was fully completed by the 14th of October, 1863, having a full complement of men. Officers, 37; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 865. Total, 902. It left the State October 19, 1863, and proceeded to Washington, D. C., where it was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. It remained in this vicinity until the 31st day of October, 1863, when under orders from the War Department it proceeded to Eastport, Miss., having been assigned for duty in the West. It then became a part of the Army of the Tennessee, and at once entered upon an active career. It was soon after attached to the Sixteenth Army Corps. It remained in this connection until July, 1864, when it reported under orders to General Sherman, and joined in the campaign before Atlanta, and proceeded with him on his march through Georgia and the Carolinas. At different times during the years 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of Recruits, Substitutes and Drafted men. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, were discharged at Washington, D. C., May 30, 1865, in compliance with orders from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated May 18, 1865. The remainder were mustered out of service near Alexandria, Va., July 20, 1865, by E. Alexander, Captain and Assistant Commissary of Musters, Bartlett's Division, Twenty-second Army Corps, under the provisions of Special Orders No. 160, Headquarters Department of Washington, D. C., dated July 5, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington; then to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the Tennessee; then to the First Brigade, Second Division, Sixteenth Army Corps; then to the Second Brigade, Fourth Division, Sixteenth Army Corps; then to the Second Brigade, First Division, Seventeenth Army Corps, and at the close of the war was assigned to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Meridian, Miss., Feb. 10 and 11, 1864; Resaca, Ga., May 13, 14 and 15, 1864; New Hope Church, Ga., May 25, 1864; Near Dallas, Ga., May 26 to 31, 1864; Big Shanty, Ga., June 14 and 15, 1864; Kenesaw Mountain, Ga., June 16, 1864; Roswell's Mills, Ga., June 18, 1864; Ruff's Mills, Ga., July 4, 1864; Decatur, Ga., July 22, 1864; Siege of Atlanta, Ga., July 27 to Sept. 1, 1864; Resaca, Ga., Oct. 15, 1864; Little Ogeechee Creek, Ga., Dec. 5, 1864; Siege of Savannah, Ga., Dec. 10 to 21, 1864; Salkahatchie Swamp, S. C., Feb. 3, 1865.

Thirty-sixth Regiment.

See Third Regiment Cavalry—Volunteers.

Thirty-seventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-seventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved July 22, 1861, and in pursuance of a call made by the President of the United States for the immediate raising by voluntary enlistment from the Militia force of the State, of troops to serve one hundred days, unless sooner discharged, and as was fully set forth in a proclamation by the Governor of this State, dated Trenton, May 16, 1861. The troops to be raised were to be organized according to existing regulations governing enlistments, and to be mustered into the service of the United States by Regiments. Under the authority thus issued the organization of two Regiments of Infantry was immediately commenced, to be known as the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Regiments. The Headquarters of the Thirty-seventh was established at Trenton; the Thirty-eighth at Camp Frelinghuysen, near Newark. The expectation of a rapid enrollment for these Regiments was not realized, and it became necessary to consolidate the two, which was done. The Headquarters of the Regiment after consolidation was established at Camp Delaware, near Trenton, and the organization designated the Thirty-seventh. It was then completed, and the command, consisting of nine Companies, was mustered into the service of the United States for one hundred days, unless sooner discharged, June 23, 1864, at Trenton, N. J., by FRANK WISTER, Captain Twelfth Infantry, United States Army, the strength of the command being—Officers, 35; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 743. Total, 778. It left the State June 28, 1861, en route to the front. At Baltimore, Md., the command embarked on transports, proceeded to City Point, Va., and immediately reported for duty. It was then assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James. The early service of the Regiment was varied, being assigned for provost, garrison, guard, picket and other duties, and so continued until the 28th of August, when, under orders, it marched to the extreme front, relieving veteran troops, and was assigned to duty in the trenches and fortifications before Petersburg, Va. It remained in the performance of these duties until relieved, September 25, 1864, their term of service having expired. During the month of September, and prior to its return to the State for discharge, a number of the enlisted men re-enlisted for one year, and were assigned by transfer to Battery E, First Regiment New Jersey Artillery. On the 26th of September the Regiment left the front en route to New Jersey for discharge, leaving a record gratifying and unexceptional, having gained a reputation uncommon to troops of so short a period of service, receiving a decided compliment from Major General Birney, commanding, as set forth in General Orders No. 34, Headquarters Tenth Army Corps, Army of the James, dated Before Petersburg, Va., September 25, 1864. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Trenton, N. J., Oct. 1, 1861, by JAMES W. LONG, Captain Second Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James; then to the Second Brigade, Third Division, Tenth Army Corps.

The Regiment took an active part in the operations before Petersburg, Va., from August 28 to September 26, 1864.

Thirty-eighth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-eighth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and an Act of Congress, approved July 4, 1864, as set forth in General Orders No. 224, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 6, 1864, and under authority received from the War Department for the raising of two regiments of Infantry, and promulgated in General Orders No. 4, dated Office of Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., August 24, 1864. The Regiment was organized under the provisions of General Orders No. 110, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. Instructions were issued and recruiting for the Regiment immediately commenced. The Headquarters of the Regiment was established at Camp Bayard, Trenton, N. J., and active measures were put forth to complete the organization at an early day. The required number of men to complete the Regiment was raised and mustered into the service of the United States, by companies, for one year, by the 1st day of October, 1864. Company A was mustered in September 22; Company B, September 9; Company C, September 10; Company D, September 24; Company E, October 1; Company F, September 22; Company G, September 27; Company H, September 30; Company I, September 12; Company K, September 15, and Field and Staff, October 3, 1864, at Camp Bayard, Trenton, N. J., by George B. Eckert, First Lieutenant Third Infantry, United States Army. The Regiment was fully completed and organized by the 31 day of October, 1864, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 944. Total, 982. It left the State in three detachments. Companies B, C, I and K left September 20, 1864, under the command of Captain George W. Day; Companies F, D and A, September 29, 1864, under the command of Major William H. Tantum; Companies E, G and H, October 4, 1864, under the command of Colonel William J. Sewell. Each detachment under orders proceeded to Baltimore, Md.; thence by transports to City Point, Va. Upon arrival it was assigned to garrison and other duties, the headquarters of the Regiment being at Fort Powhattan, on the James river, having been assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James. It remained in this vicinity during its entire period of service. In the early part of 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a number of Recruits. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war. It was mustered out of service at City Point, Va., June 30, 1865, by J. Remington, Captain and Assistant Commissary of Musters, Department of Virginia, by authority, as set forth in a telegram dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 29, 1865, and started immediately on its return to New Jersey, where it arrived July 4, 1865.

The Regiment was attached to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James.

The Regiment took part in the operations of the Army before Petersburg, Va., which resulted in its capture April 2, and the surrender of General Lee, April 9, 1865.

Thirty-ninth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-ninth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and an Act of Congress, approved July 4, 1864, as set forth in General Orders No. 224, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 6, 1864, and under authority received from the War Department for the raising of two regiments of Infantry, and promulgated in General Orders No. 4, dated Office of Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., August 24, 1864. The Regiment was organized under the provisions of General Orders No. 110, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. Instructions were issued and recruiting for the Regiment immediately commenced. The Headquarters of the Regiment was established at Camp Frelinghuysen, Newark, N. J., and active measures were put forth to complete the organization at an early day. The required number of men to complete the Regiment was soon raised and mustered into the service of the United States, by companies, for one year. Company A was mustered in October 11; Company B, September 30; Company C, October 8; Company D, October 3; Company E, September 23; Company F, September 25; Company G, September 23; Company H, September 26; Company I, October 1; Company K, September 23, 1864, at Camp Frelinghuysen, Newark, N. J., by WILLIAM O. DOUGLASS, Second Lieutenant, Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army. Soon after the commencement of this regiment, authority was issued for the raising of another regiment of Infantry, to be known as the Forty-first, recruiting being dull it failed of success—the men that had been enlisted for it were transferred to and joined this regiment. The Regiment was fully completed and organized by the 11th day of October, 1864, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 973. Total, 1012. It left the State by detachments. Companies E, F, G, H, and K, left October 4, 1864, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel JAMES H. CLOSE; Company D, left October 9th, under the command of Captain FOWLER MERRILL; Companies B and I, left October 10th, under the command of Major WILLIAM T. CORNISH, and Companies A, C, and Field and Staff, left October 14, 1864, under the command of Colonel ABRAM C. WILDRICK, and proceeded under orders direct to the front. Arriving at City Point, Va., it was temporarily assigned to duty with General BENHAM'S Brigade of Engineers, within the fortifications around Petersburg. It remained in this connection but a short time, when it was assigned to the Ninth Army Corps. During the months of March and April, 1865, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those not entitled to discharge under the provisions of General Orders No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, were transferred to the Thirty-third Regiment, in compliance with Special Orders No. 45, dated Headquarters, Ninth Army Corps, June 15, 1865, and were discharged with that regiment. The remainder were mustered out of service near Alexandria, Va., June 17, 1865, under provisions of special orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated May 18, 1865, by EDWARD ROSE, First Lieutenant Fifty-sixth Infantry, Massachusetts Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Second Division, Ninth Army Corps.

The Regiment was first attached to General BENHAM'S Brigade of Engineers, Army of the James—then to the First Brigade, Second Division, Ninth Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Before Petersburg, Va., (Capture of Fort Mahone), April 2, 1865.

Fortieth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fortieth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and an Act of Congress, approved July 4, 1864, as set forth in General Orders No. 224, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 6, 1864, and under instructions from the Governor, dated Office of the Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., October 4, 1864. The organization of the Regiment was to be effected under the provisions of General Orders No. 243, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., August 9, 1864. The Headquarters of the Regiment was established at Draft Rendezvous, (Camp Perrine,) Trenton, N. J. Under the authority thus issued, the organization of the Regiment was commenced, the term of enlistment to be for one, two or three years. In compliance with a telegram dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., October 12, 1864, the Regiment was to be organized by successive companies; no new company to be commenced until the one preceding it was completed and mustered. In accordance therewith, the command was completed and was mustered into the service of the United States by WASHINGTON I. NEWTON, Major Second Cavalry, United States Army, commanding Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., and was forwarded to the field by companies, immediately after being mustered in. Company A was mustered in October 24, 1864, and left the State October 24, 1864; Company B, mustered in in two detachments December 24, 1864, and January 12, 1865, left the State respectively December 24, 1864, and January 12, 1865; Company C, mustered in January 21, 1865, left the State January 21, 1865; Company D, mustered in January 27, 1865, left the State January 31, 1865; Company E, mustered in February 2, 1865, left the State February 6, 1865; Company F, mustered in February 9, 1865, left the State February 10, 1865; Company G, mustered in February 16, 1865, left the State February 17, 1865; Company H, mustered in February 22, 1865, left the State February 24, 1865; Company I, mustered in March 2, 1865, left the State March 4, 1865; Company K, mustered in March 10, 1865, left the State March 12, 1865. Each company on its arrival in the field was attached to the Fourth Regiment, and so remained until six companies had reported for duty, when the command was organized and assumed a regimental organization, the strength of the command being—Officers, 37; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 984. Total, 1,021. It was then assigned to the Sixth Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out of service at Hall's Hill, Va., July 13, 1865, by A. M. TYLER, Brevet Major and Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Division, Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, in compliance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 7, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to the First Brigade, First Division, Sixth Army Corps, and at the close of the war was assigned to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Hatcher's Run, Va., Feb. 5, '65; Fort Steedman, Va., March 25, '65; Capture of Petersburg, Va., April 2, '65; Sailor's Creek, Va., April 6, '65; Farmville, Va., April 7, '65; Lee's Surrender, (Appomattox, Va.) April 9, '65.

First Regiment—Cavalry—Volunteers.

(Sixteenth Regiment.)

This Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by authority issued by the War Department, Washington, D. C., August 4, 1861, direct to private individuals resident of this State, and not in any way under the control or supervision of the State authorities. Under the authority thus given, recruiting was commenced, and its organization soon completed. It was then accepted by the War Department as an independent organization, having been designated Halsted's Cavalry. The Head Quarters of the Regiment was established at Trenton, N. J., and from thence proceeded to Washington, D. C., on or about September 1, 1861, the strength of the command being—Officers, 44; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 998. Total, 1,042. Upon arrival it went into Camp on Meridian Hill, D. C. On the 19th day of February, 1862, an order was issued from the War Department transferring the Regiment to the State authorities. It was then thoroughly re-organized and designated the First Regiment Cavalry, New Jersey Volunteers. On the 3d of April, 1862, Captain Cornelius G. Van Reipen's Company, Third Regiment, New York Cavalry, being composed entirely of men from New Jersey, was under orders from the War Department transferred to and joined this Regiment, the enlisted men being distributed among the different companies. Under the provisions of General Orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a large number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out September 16, 1864, by JAMES W. LONG, Captain Second Infantry, United States Army. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton. N. J., of large numbers of recruits and some substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders No. 83, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 8, 1865, were mustered out (excepting Company F,) May 31, 1865, at Cloud's Mills, Va., by HOWARD M. SMITH, Brevet Lieutenant Colonel and Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Cavalry Division, Department of Washington, those of Company F, were mustered out May 25, 1865, at Camp near Washington, D. C., by MAY H. STACEY, Captain Twelfth Infantry, United States Army, and Commissary of Musters. The remainder were mustered out at Vienna, Va., July 24, 1865, by P. L. LEE, First Lieutenant and Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Separate Brigade, Department of Washington, in compliance with General Orders No. 94, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated May 15, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to Palmer's Brigade, Cavalry Division, Army of the Potomac; then to the First Brigade, Cavalry Division, Army of the Potomac; then to the Military District of Washington; then to Bayard's Brigade, Department of the Rappahannock: then to Bayard's Brigade, Third Army Corps, Army of Virginia; then to the Defences of Washington; then to the First Brigade, Cavalry Division, Army of the Potomac; then to Cavalry Division, Left Grand Division, Army of the Potomac; then to the Second Brigade, Third Division, Cavalry Corps, Army of the Potomac; then to the First Brigade, Second Division, Cavalry Corps, Army of the Potomac; then to the First Brigade, First Division, Cavalry Corps, Department of Washington; then to the First Separate Brigade, Department of Washington.

Second Regiment—Cavalry—Volunteers.

(Thirty-second Regiment.)

This Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under authority and instructions received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1863, and as set forth in General Orders No. 4, dated Adjutant General's Office, Trenton, N. J., July 11, 1863. The organization was to be effected under the requirements of existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, and of General Orders 191 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No. 110 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. The organization of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and the authority to raise companies was issued to individuals in different parts of the State. The Head Quarters of the Regiment was established at Camp Parker, near Trenton, N. J., and active measures were put forth to complete the organization at an early day. As soon as the companies were raised they reported at Camp, and were immediately mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war. Company A was mustered in August 11; Company B, August 15; Company C, September 9; Company D, August 26; Company E, September 16; Company F, September 8; Company G, September 25; Company H, August 12; Company I, August 28; Company K, August 28; Company L, August 26; Company M, September 2, and the Field and Staff September 25, 1863, at Camp Parker, near Trenton N. J., by JOSEPH P. ASH, First Lieutenant Fifth Cavalry, United States Army; the strength of the command being—Officers, 44; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 1,105. Total, 1,149. It left the State October 5, 1863, proceeded to Washington, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia and went into Camp near Alexandria, having been assigned to General Stoneman's Division of Cavalry, Army of the Potomac. It remained in this vicinity engaged in drilling, scouting and preparing for active service until the 9th of November, 1863, when under orders from the War Department, Washington, D. C., it proceeded to Eastport, Miss. and joined the Army of the Southwest. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits and some substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service nearly eight months after the close of the war, having been retained in this Department by order of the Government for provost and other duties. The enlisted men entitled to discharge under the provisions of General Orders No. 83, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 8, 1865, were mustered out June 29, 1865, at Vicksburg, Miss., by GEORGE W. RICHARDSON, First Lieutenant Twenty-fourth Regiment Indiana Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Department of the Gulf; the remainder were mustered out November 1, 1865, at Vicksburg, Miss., by JAMES H. LANDERS, Captain Eighth Regiment Infantry, New Hampshire Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Department of Mississippi in compliance with Special Orders No. 76, dated Head Quarters Department of Mississippi, October 17, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to a Brigade, Stoneman's Cavalry Division, Army of the Potomac; then to the First Brigade, First Cavalry Division, Army of the Tennessee; then to the First Brigade, Seventh Division, Sixteenth Army Corps; then to the First Brigade, Second Division Cavalry Corps, Military Division West Mississippi.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fairfax, Va., Oct. 17, '63; Iuka, Miss., Dec. 4 '63; Jackson, Tenn., Dec. 30, '63; Near Moscow, Tenn, Feb. 13, '64; Aberdeen, Miss., Feb. 19, '64; West Point, Miss, Feb. 20 and 21, '64; Okolona, Miss., Feb. 22, '64; Ivy Farm, Miss., Feb. 22, '64; Tallahatchie River, Miss., Feb. 23, '64; Raleigh, Tenn., April 10, '64; Bolivar, Tenn., May 2, '64; Holly Springs, Miss., May 23, '64; Corinth, Miss., June 6, '64; Ripley, Miss., June 7, '64; Hatchie River, Miss., June 8, '64; Guntown, Miss, June 10, '64; Ripley, Miss, June 11, '64; Waldron's Bridge, Miss., June 11, '64; Davis' Mill (on Hatchie River), Tenn., June 12, '64; Utica, Miss., July 12, '64; Grand Gulf, Miss., July 14, '64; Port Gibson, Miss., July 15 and 16, '64; Grand Gulf, Miss, July 17, '64; Jackson, Miss., July 20, '64; Abbyville, Miss, August 10, '64; Tallahatchie River, Miss., Aug. 14, '64; Teppo River, Miss., Aug. 15, '64; Waterford, Miss., Aug. 19, '64; Near Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 12 and 13, '64; Syracuse, Mo., Oct. 10, '64; Big Blue and Osage River, Kan., Oct. 23 to 25, '64; Fort Scott, Ark., Oct. 28, '64; Big Lake, Ark., Nov. 29 and 30, '64; Verona, Miss., Dec. 25, '64; Egypt Station, Miss., Dec. 28, '64; Spanish Fort (Mobile), Ala., April 8, '65; Fort Blakeley (Mobile), Ala., April 10, '65; Blakeley, Ala., April 12, '65; Maningham, Ala., April 23, '65.

Third Regiment—Cavalry—Volunteers.

(Thirty-sixth Regiment.)

This Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and in pursuance of a proclamation issued by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., October 17, 1863, as set forth in General Orders No. 340, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., October 19, 1863, and General Orders No. 10, dated Adjutant General's Office, Trenton, N. J., November 4, 1863. The organization of the Regiment was to be effected under the requirements of existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, and of General Orders No. 191 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No. 110 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. The organization of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and the authority to raise companies was issued to individuals in different parts of the State. The Head Quarters of the Regiment was established at Camp Bayard, Trenton, N. J., and to ensure an early completion of the organization, it was designated the First Regiment United States Hussars, and a uniform pertaining to this branch of service was adopted, which gave an enthusiasm to recruiting, and the required number of men to complete the Regiment was soon obtained. As soon as the companies were raised they reported at Camp, and were immediately mustered into the service of the United States for three years unless sooner discharged. Company A was mustered in January 26, and Company C, January 22, 1864, by GEORGE B. ECKERT, First Lieutenant Third Infantry, United States Army; Company E, January 4, 1864; Company F, January 12, and Companies G and H, January 6, 1864, by WILLIAM P. MARTIN, Captain and Commissary of Subsistence, United States Volunteers, at Camp Bayard, Trenton, N. J.; Company D, December 2, 1863; Company B, January 29, 1864; Companies I, K, L and M, March 24, and Field and Staff February 10, 1864, by SAMUEL CANBY, First Lieutenant Fourth Artillery, United States Army; the strength of the Regiment being—Officers, 47; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 1,131. Total, 1,178. It left the State April 5, 1864, and marched overland to Annapolis, Md., having been assigned to the Ninth Army Corps. It remained at this point but a short time when under orders it proceeded to Alexandria, Va., and joined the Army of the Potomac. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits and some substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders No. 83, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 8, 1865, were mustered out at Camp near Alexandria, Va., June 5, 6, 7 and 8, 1865. The remainder were mustered out August 1, 1865, at Washington, D. C., by REUBEN H. WILBUR, Major One Hundred and Second Regiment Infantry New York Volunteers, in compliance with Special Orders No. 161, Head Quarters Department of Washington, D. C., July 6, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to the Ninth Army Corps; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, Cavalry Corps, Army of the Potomac; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Cavalry Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: United States Ford, Va., May 19, '64; Ashland Station, Va., June 1, '64; North Anna River, Va., June 2, '64; Hawes' Shop, Va., June 3, '64; Bottom's Bridge, Va., June 4, '64; White Oak Swamp, Va., June 13, '64; Smith's Store, Va., June 15, '64; Before Petersburg, Va., July 25, '64; Lee's Mills, Va., July 27, '64; Winchester, Va., Aug. 17, '64; Summit Point, Va., Aug. 21, '64; Kearneysville, Va., Aug. 25 and 26, '64; Berryville Turnpike, Va., Sept. 13, '64; Opequan, Va., Sept. 19, '64; Front Royal, Va., Sept. 21 and 22, '64; Fisher's Hill, Va., Sept. 22, '64; Winchester, Va., Sept. 24, '64; Waynesboro, Va., Sept. 28, '64; Bridgewater, Va., Oct. 2, '64; Tom's Brook, Va., Oct. 9, '64; Cupp's Mills, Va., Oct. 13, '64; Cedar Creek, Va., Oct. 19, '64; Back Road (near Cedar Creek), Va., Nov. 12, '64; Mount Jackson, Va., Nov. 22, '64; Lacey's Spring, Va., Dec. 21, '64; Morefield, Va., Feb. 22, '65; Waynesboro, Va., March 2, '65; *Dinwiddie C.
